PUMP DESTROYED BY A CLOUDBURST

Much Damage Done . Kauna kakai by the Nona term Last Week.

The Kona storm worked havoc Kaunakakai. The American Suga Company's plantations are situated there, and they felt the force of th storm greatly.

In many instances vegetation on na tive kuleanas was entirely destroye being covered over with a layer o earth washed from the mountains to depth of two or three feet.

On Wednesday and Thursday last large areas of land were laid waste an much valuable property was ruined.

A cloud burst, rushing down th gulch of Kaunakakai, struck the pumping plant of the American Suga Company located directly in the pat of the onrushing water, and it is said destroyed the pit of masonry contain ing a pump of 5,000,000 gallons capa city.

Hundreds of tons of rock and ma sonry now cover the pumping machin ery. Many of the buildings of the plan tation have been undermined by th cloudburst, which, starting some 200 feet up the mountain, descended wit terrific force and carried everythin before it.

MUST AWAIT THE WIND This Oppressive Weather Will Las

Until a Turn.

The last two days have been depressing on account of the general mugginess of the atmosphere. They have been damp, sweltering and generally unbearable. Collars wilted and starched shirt bosoms fell.

"Whew! but isn't this a scorcher!" was the composite remark of the community. Old Sol didn't have much to do with the uncomfortableness of the residents but even his genial face failed to dispel the soggy feeling. Clothes were extremely uncomfortable and many a native sighed for the good old days when a malo was considered just the thing. The rows of post office boxes have presented a queer sight since the atmosphere became charged so heavily with moisture. From a bright, brassy look they have turned the color of copper. Prof. Lyons states that the present condition of the atmosphere is Classified Advertisements. likely to last until the wind turns to the west. The barometer is steadily rising-yesterday it was 29.97-and this indicates that there will be a change for better weather. Yesterday's at-Hawatlan standard time is 10 hours 30 mospheric record up to 9 p. m. was as follows: Temperature-minimum, 75; maximum, 81. Humidity, 85, Dew

DECKER WANTS REWARD.

Ferreira Stopped Runaway and Received Ten Doliars.

Who was the hero of the runaway incident which occurred on Bethel street Saturday. Deputy Hack Inspector Frank Ferreira, who sprang into the dray of the Pacific Hardware Company, which was being trundle! off at a maddening pace by the frightened Simr. Kinau, Freeman, from Hawaii horses, is claimed by his friends to be entitled to the palm.

S. Decker, the broker who has ar Stmr. Wainleale, Green, from Koolau claim. It is suspected that as the Paoffice on Bethel street, lays a similar cific Hardware Company sent a $10 bill over to the police station as a mark of its appreciation for Ferreira's promptitude in preventing a smashup, Decker tecame convinced that a substantial reward was worth making a fight for in addition to glory. As the animals started off Ferreira jumped in at the rear, caught the reins and forced the horses to stop. Decker clambered in behind Ferreira, and also took hold of the reins.

Mr. Decker in making his claim for half the reward is reported to have said that he had a $35 gold watch in his pocket, and riske'i the chances of smashing it. Ferreira, in turn, says hbasn't got a $35 watch to break, but that he risked his ne.k and that is worth as much as Decker's gold watch. Ferreira still has the $10.

WOMAN'S GUILD PROFITED.

The Fair and Sale on Saturday was a Great Success.

The fair and sale of fancy work of the Woman's Guild of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral Saturday afternoon was a huge success. The receipts for the sale of the various dainty articles sold by the ladies amounted to more than $200.

The booths were arranged in the Sunday School room in the cathedral grounds and looked very pretty. Although the room was not crowded with child; J. E. Pape, H. T. Lake, S. Mine-kishi, P. E. Ray, Miss C. Kahauala, Miss Lily Mitchell, Frank Gray, J. D. Hicks by well known ladies of the church, were as follows: Fancy tea table, Mrs. C. B. Cooper; fancy goods, Mrs. Melanphy and Mrs. Robertson; lemonade stand, Mrs. Lawrence; candy table, Mrs. R. A. Jordan; children's table,

Dr. Day Honored.

Honolulu physicians gave a farewell banquet last evening for Dr. Frank R. Day who leaves for Germany on Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Day. The foremost members of the profession were grouped about the festive board, Dr. C. B. Cooper presiding. Among the others were Doctors McGrew, Emerson, Myers, Wolters, Herbert, Hoffmann, Mays, Waterhouse, Garvin, Pratt, Bowman, Moore and the guest of honor, Dr. Day. Dr. Wood expressed his regret at the departure of his boyhood friend, and present business Bowyers. She was formerly Miss Ethel partner and spoke of the standing of Dr. Day in his profession. Dr. Day Johnstone, secretary to the Duke of modestly responded. Dr. Hoffmann spoke of the routine of study which Dr. Day would encounter in Germany, and the theories which would certainly be impressed upon him. All made speeches of greater or less length.
